Lawsuit Background

You may be eligible for a payment from a class action settlement involving Ford Motor Company ("Defendant").

The lawsuit alleges defects relating to the "Transit Trail" package in certain Ford vehicles, including that they fail to provide sufficient clearance for the tires within the wheel wells under certain driving conditions. Ford denies any wrongdoing and has agreed to settle the lawsuit, Provo v. Ford Motor Company, Case No. 1:25-cv-00569, United States District Court for the District of Delaware.

Who is included? Records show you may be a Settlement Class Member defined as: all persons who, as the Original Owner or Lessee, purchased or leased a Class Vehicle before June 1, 2024, for personal, family, or household use and who have not already received any compensation from Ford, including any settlement payment or repurchase, relating to the Class Vehicle or to any alleged defect of, or economic loss relating to, the Class Vehicle.

What does the Settlement Provide?

As a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim online or by mail postmarked by January 15, 2027, for the following benefits from the Settlement:

$6,000 Payment per Class Vehicle

You must provide a completed IRS Form W-9 or other documentation, in order to show that your vehicle qualifies as a Class Vehicle and that you qualify as an Original Owner or Lessee.

The Class Vehicles include model year 2023 and 2024 Ford Transit Trail vehicles originally sold or leased by an Authorized Ford Dealer, and that were purchased or leased as new before June 1, 2024 by an Original Owner or Lessee. Visit www.FordTransitTrailSettlement.com to determine if your vehicle is a Class Vehicle.

Other Options

Opt-Out postmarked by January 13, 2027. You may submit an opt-out if you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class. The Court will exclude Settlement Class Members who request to opt-out. If you do not opt-out, you will be bound by the Settlement and any orders or judgments.

Object by January 13, 2027. You may object to the Settlement if you do not opt-out. The Long Form Notice on the Settlement Website explains how to opt-out or object.

Do Nothing. You will get no payment from the Settlement, and you will be bound by the Settlement and any orders or judgments.

Final Approval Hearing on March 16, 2027. The Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs up to $625,000 to be paid directly by Ford, and any objections. You or your lawyer may ask to appear at the hearing, but it is not required.
